A Bold Step.

To overcome the well-grounded and reasonable objections of the more intelligent to the use of secret, medicinal compounds, Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., some time ago, decided to make a bold departure from the usual course pursued by the makers of put-up medicines for domestic use, and so has published broad-cast and openly to the whole world, a full and complete list of all the ingredients entering into the composition of his widely celebrated medicines. Thus he has taken his numerous patrons and patients into his full confidence. Thus too he has removed his medicines from among secret nostrums of doubtful merits, and made them remedies of known composition.

By this bold step Dr. Pierce has shown that the formulas are of such excellence that he is not afraid to subject them to the scrutiny of the world.

Not only does the wrapper of every bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the famous medicine for weak kidneys, and liver or biliousness, and all catarrhal diseases, contain a list of the ingredients of the medicine, but a full and complete list of all the ingredients composing it, but a small book has been compiled, containing the standard medical works, of all the different schools of practice, containing very numerous extracts from the writings of the great practitioners of medicine, embracing in the strongest possible terms, each and every ingredient contained in Dr. Pierce's medicines. One of these little books will be mailed free to any one sending address on postal card or by letter to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and requesting the same. From this little book it will be learned that the ingredients of his medicines are of such excellence that they are made from native, medicinal roots of great value; also that some of the most valuable ingredients contained in Dr. Pierce's medicines are of such excellence that they are made from native, medicinal roots of great value; also that some of the most valuable ingredients contained in Dr. Pierce's medicines are of such excellence that they are made from native, medicinal roots of great value.

FLIGHT OF A BANKER

A malevolent plot, relentlessly worked out by members of the Black Hand, declares the New York policy, in defiance of the authorities pressing hard upon their trail, ended dramatically yesterday in a run of depositors and the suspension of the bank of Pasquale Pati, an Italian banker on Elizabeth street, and his flight from the city in fear of death threatened by the Black Hand because he recently shot and killed Francesco Pelletro, one of their alleged members, who demanded money under the pain of killing the banker and family.

Three thousand depositors clamored loudly at the Pati bank yesterday for their savings, and in the excitement a run was started on the bank of F. Acciell & Son, across the street from the suspended institution, and caused it to shut its doors. The two banks were small private institutions. The run on the Pati bank, the police charge, was engineered by the Black Hand as a revenge on Pati, who was Monday acquitted by the coroner of having killed Pelletro. When the run was at its height police reserves were rushed to the district to quell the fast rising disorder. Plastered on the windows of Pati's bank the most remarkable notice of a suspension probably ever posted was read by hundreds after the bank had closed its doors. It read: "I will suspend payment for two weeks. I am compelled to leave town, as I have received threatening letters and people have attempted to take my life. There are no fears of your losing your deposits. Re-advise cash, I own 65 houses in New York and have them insured for $100,000, and can pay everybody. I will resume in two weeks."

The closing of Pati's bank and his sudden departure from the city is the sequel to a scheme, so say the police, of extortion and blackmail of the Black Hand that had its inception several years ago. Pasquale Pati was said to be the richest banker in the Italian quarter on the East Side, New York, where the banker believed he had no enemies.

Do not Crowd the Season.

The first warm days of spring bring with them a desire to get out and enjoy the exhilarating air and sunshine. Children that have been housed all winter are brought out and you wonder where they all came from. The heavy winter clothing is thrown aside and many shed their flannels. Then a cold wave comes and people say that grip is epidemic. Colds at this season are even more dangerous than in mid-winter, as there is more danger of pneumonia. Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, however, and you will have nothing to fear. I always cure, and we have never known a cold to result in pneumonia when it was used. It is pleasant and safe to take. Children like it. For sale by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup acts gently yet promptly on the bowels and allays inflammation at the same time. It is pleasant to take. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

CAR RAN INTO STORE.

Over a score of people were injured when an interurban car on the Ann Arbor branch of the Detroit United Railway, bound into Detroit, Mich., from Jackson, Mich., was derailed by defective rails near Thirty-first street and plowed across the brick pavement into a store building yesterday afternoon. The car was wrecked and the front of the two-story building was demolished. Twenty people were taken to the hospital for treatment and nearly another score received minor injuries.

The car left Jackson at 11:15 o'clock for Detroit, and there were 48 people aboard when it entered the city. It was running at about 20 to 25 miles an hour down Michigan avenue when it struck defective rails near Thirty-first street. For a space of six feet the inside lip of the groove rails which are used on the local tracks was broken. As the car struck this spot the front trucks left the rails and started at an angle toward the curbstone.

The 45-foot car crashed through a large telegraph pole and into the two-story brick dry goods store of A. Silberstein. It buried itself into the building for a distance of six feet. The brickwork at the second story of the building caught the roof of the car and tore it off, while the body continued on into the store. When the car had stopped it was lying on its side, with the passengers wedged in every conceivable position among the seats on the lower side. They were covered with broken glass and woodwork, and it was fortunate that more of them were not fatally injured. The loss will reach $10,000.

Kodol is a scientific preparation of vegetable acids with natural digestants and contains the same juices found in a healthy stomach. Each dose will digest more than 5,000 grains of good food. Sell by W. F. Creighton & Co.

When two of them, taste and smell, having been impaired, if not utterly destroyed, by Nasal Catarrh, are fully restored by Ely's Cream Balm, can you doubt that this remedy deserves all that has been said of it by the thousands who have used it? It is applied directly to the affected six passage and begins its healing work at once. Why not get it today? All druggists or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren Street, New York, on receipt of 50 cents.
